

3
Bali, 10 January 2001 (cont'd)

FORGIVE ME IF YOU HAVE ALREADY HEARD ABOUT THIS - LAST SATURDAY GURU SAID HE WOULD LIKE ALL OF US, NO MATTER HOW BAD WE MIGHT BE AS A SINGER, TO LEARN A SONG WHICH BEGINS "AMAR GURU SABAR, GURU ONLY SUPREME", WHICH HE HAS TAUGHT EVERYONE ON THE CHRISTMAS TRIP. LIKE THE INVOCATION HE WOULD LIKE ALL OF US TO KNOW IT. IT MEANS: "THE SUPREME IS THE ONLY GURU OF MINE AND EVERYBODY. WE ALL ARE THE DREAMS OF HIS INFINITY." AS THE AVAILABLE PHOTOCOPY IS TOO LIGHT TO FAX, I'VE RECOPIED THE SONG, BELOW, IN THE HOPES THAT IT WILL BE CLEARER:

Words and music by
Sri Chinmoy

A-MAR GU-RU SA-BAR GU-RU ON-LY SU- PREME

AM-RA SA-BAI SU-PRE-MER IN-FI-NI-TY'S DREAM

GURU SAID HE TAKES HIS SONGS AS PART OF HIS MEDITATION AND HE WOULD LIKE US TO DO THE SAME. THEY ARE ALL DEVOTIONAL SONGS. MANY ARE SIMPLE, BUT IF WE SING THEM FROM THE DEPTHS OF OUR HEARTS THEY WILL BE PART OF OUR MEDITATION. SIMPLICITY HAS ITS OWN BEAUTY. SIMPLICITY HAS ITS OWN DIVINITY. SIMPLICITY HAS ITS OWN IMMORTALITY. SIMPLICITY IS AN EXTREMELY IMPORTANT QUALITY IN LIFE, BUT WE NEGLECT IT. WE ARE ALL COMPLEXITY. COMPLEXITY IS NOTHING BUT INDIAN BULLOCK CART SPEED, WHILE THE DIVINITY THAT IS INSIDE SIMPLICITY RUNS ALWAYS THE FASTEST TOWARDS THE DESTINATION. WITH COMPLEXITY, IT IS AS THOUGH WE ARE TRYING TO RUN WEARING LAYER AFTER LAYER OF HEAVY COATS. GURU ADDED THAT

/...