EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL
CABINET DU SECRÉTAIRE GENERAL

REFERENCE:

24 January 1986

Dear Mr. Davidson,

I have been asked by the Secretary-General to thank you for your letter of 16 January apprising him of your intrepid endeavours in support of the International Year of Peace.

He read with gratification of the admirable commitment, so widely recognized, which you and your colleagues in the Meditation Group share for the principles which underly both the United Nations Organization and its International Year of Peace. There could be no more fitting venue than Hiroshima and Nagasaki to make such a demonstration.

He has asked me particularly to send to you and your colleagues in the Group his very good wishes for the year ahead.

Yours sincerely,

J. Paul Kavanagh
Second Officer
